If your Norton scan freezes, don’t worry! You can usually fix it by following these steps. For any help at any step, call our toll-free support at +1 844 602=2796.

Restart your computer to clear temporary glitches. For guidance, call +1 844 602=2796.

Ensure Norton is up to date by running LiveUpdate. Need help updating? Call +1 844 602=2796.

Try running the scan again, starting with a Quick Scan. If it freezes, call +1 844 602=2796.

Restart your computer in Safe Mode and run Norton. Assistance is available at +1 844 602=2796.

If none of these steps work, reinstall Norton Antivirus. Our experts can guide you through reinstalling at +1 844 602=2796.

A Norton scan may freeze due to:

Conflicting software (other antivirus programs) – help available at +1 844 602=2796.

Insufficient system resources (low memory or high CPU usage) – call +1 844 602=2796 if unsure how to check.

Corrupted or outdated Norton files – guidance on fixing this at +1 844 602=2796.

Large files or multiple threats slowing the scan – support is available at +1 844 602=2796.

Restarting clears temporary glitches. Updating ensures Norton’s files are intact. Safe Mode isolates conflicts. Reinstalling fixes persistent problems. For any part of this process, call +1 844 602=2796 for expert assistance.

Following these steps will:

Resume your Norton scan successfully – for live support, call +1 844 602=2796.

Keep your system protected against viruses, malware, and threats – help available at +1 844 602=2796.

Provide 24/7 expert support if issues persist – call +1 844 602=2796 anytime.

After resolving the freeze, run a full system scan to ensure your computer is completely safe. If you encounter any difficulties, our toll-free support line +1 844 602=2796 is always ready to assist.